The No-Man's Land Bill Passed.

Washington, D. C., March 3.—
After the flimsy objection by Mr.
Weaver of Iowa yesterday had sent the bill opening No-Man's Land to a committee, and as he supposed to its death, Judge Peters of Kansas, hurried over to the Senate and consummated an arrangement by which within an hour Mr. Plumb secured the passage by the Senate of a resolution requesting the House to return the bill. This fact was at once communicated to the House, where Mr. Peters was anxiously on the watch. But Mr. Weaver again interposed an objection, which, under the rules, required the request to lie over for one day. Again Mr. Weaver chuckled in the belief that he had given the bill its death blow, but the vigilant Peters was on the alert and so soon as the House assembled this morning he caused the request of the Senate to be concurred in and the bill returned to that body. Mr.
Peters at once notified Mr. Plumb and in forty-five minutes after it had received the bill the Senate had reconsidered its amendments and passed it as it was originally passed by the House. Thereafter through the vigilance and persistent efforts of Senator Plumb and Judge Peters this important bill will become a law at 12 o'clock to-morrow, it not vetoed by the President.

The following is the text of the bill as passed: "That the laws of the United States are hereby extended over the unorganized territory south of Kansas and Colorado and between the Indian territory and the territory of New Mexico, known as the public land strip, and that for the purpose of the execution of said laws said public land strip is annexed to the judicial district of Kansas and to the southwestern land district in said State, and the Secretary of the Interior is authorized to cause the subdivisional lines of townships in said public land strip to be surveyed under current appropriations for the surveying service."

Mrs. Senator Beck Passes Away.

Washington, D. C., March 6.—
Mrs. Beck, wife of Senator Beck, of Kentucky, died this evening of epilepsy. She had been in ill health for some time, but her death was unexpected. She was a Miss Buckner of London county, Virginia, and some years older than her husband, who is 67. She was a lady of great intellectual force and loveable traits of character, and it is said that his success in public life was largely owing to her well directed efforts. She leaves two children—George Beck, a large ranch owner in Wyoming, and Mrs. Goodloe, wife of Major Goodloe, paymaster of the marine corps. Another who married Jas. Corcoran, nephew of the millionaire ex-banker of this city, died a few years ago in Arkansas, where her husband lived.

MUGGS' LANDING.

As an inducement to laughter the above named play is certainly up! away up! terrible up!! Miss Clark, as Muggs, has found a part that fits her to a nicety—petite, pretty and piquant. She is the embodiment of grace and action, possesses a well cultivated voice, dances admirably, and is in every respect the peer of Anne Pixley in "M'liss," and has decidedly the advantages of that lady in youth and beauty. The company was greeted by a large and fashionable audience last evening and the universal verdict was excellent! The company as a whole, is a well balanced one and capable of good work.

An Imperative Necessity.

Afflicts nearly every one in the spring.
The system having become accustomed to the bracing air of winter, is weakened by the warm days of the changing season and readily yields to attacks of disease, Hoods Sarsaparilla is just the medicine needed. It tones up every part of the body, and also expels all impurities from the blood.

Pappinsville on the Alert.

Our neighbors over at Pappins-ville are not to be satisfied with merely looking on the progress of their neighbors when it comes to railroad building. From a Pappinsville correspondence to the Clinton Democrat, we take the following:

We also feed in the valley every year from two to three thousand cattle, and from ten to twenty thousand hogs; besides we have a surplus of corn and wheat, oats, flax and castor beans to ship, all of which is seeking an outlet to St. Louis.
We have held several meetings and have all the necessary committees appointed to confer with the officials of the Colorado at any time that will suit their convenience, and will promise to show them as fine a country as there is in the southwest, and the people as willing to help as can be found anywhere in the country, as far as they are able. We are satisfied that if the officials of the Colorado railroad will build their road on the survey they made through this valley last summer, it would be one of the best paying roads in the State.
At our last railroad meeting it was resolved to furnish right of way to the Colorado road, switch and depot grounds through this township. Our people are very anxious for the road to be built through this valley, as we are eight miles from any railroad, which makes it very unhandy and our coal mines a dead letter for want of transportation.

DISEASE,

because the extra pork it puts upon the hogs will return three times its cost.

Farmers and feeders who have used it write as follows:

"I consider it a sure cure and do not intend to do without it." M. D. Johnson, Walker, Mo.
It is a success and we cheerfully testify to same. Griffin & Bro. LaPlata, Mo.

"I have used Dr. Jos. Haas' hog remedy and can recommend it as a sure cure for hog cholera, and I am sure it has saved me from $800 to $1,000." Frank Lee, Hannibal, Mo.

"We have sold it in a dozen instances, no cure money, and have never lost a cent. It has never failed." Brown & Mills, Louisville, Mo.

"I have used your medicine for several years.
F. Walter, Knox City, Mo.

"I find it the best preventive for prevailing disease." C. J. Dawson, Denver, Mo.

"I heartily recommend it to all having hogs infected with cholera." T. A. Buford, Louisville, Mo.

"I will not be without Haas' hog remedy if it cost three times the present price." John Cantin, Grant City, Mo.

"Dr. Haas hog remedy does all he claims for it. I am satisfied it will pay for itself in putting on flesh, aside from keeping hogs healthy." Thos. H. Logan, Grant City, Mo.

"Your remedy gives better satisfaction than any other." S. B. Smith, Perry, Mo.

"I am convinced, if the medicine is properly given, it is the thing for hogs." W. J. McCray, Brownings, Mo.

"Since using your remedy I have not had the cholera among hogs."
John S. Courtwright, Peculiar, Cass Co., Mo.

"It is the best thing of the kind I ever used."
A. J. Leggett, Hannibal, Mo.

"Your remedy is giving general satisfaction."
A. M. Lewis, Bellvue, Mo.
